Aetna Life Insurance Company
Has paid Losses in North Carolina Over $1,100,000.

Is Your Life Insured? If not, why not?

If it is, are you carrying enough? Do you know that every $1,000 produced by a life insurance policy represents the producing power of $15,000 at 7 per cent?

Do you ever reflect that your death would deprive your family of the income of a life insurance policy? Do you know that a life insurance policy is a surety for the future of your family?

What a Business Man would risk a $10,000 stock of goods in one building without life insurance, and yet the same stock may never be destroyed?

Is it prudent or kind to permit your family to rely on the death of a man who is a certain of destruction in a very few years, and that may be destroyed to-morrow?

Do you know that a life insurance policy is a surety for the future of your family? Do you know that a life insurance policy is a surety for the future of your family?

It will pay every body to call at Pelham's.

Pelham's prices are the lowest on Xmas presents.

Now is the time for country merchants, and others, to get their Christmas goods. Asheville is just crowded with them. Call early. Cheap.

We regret to hear that Mr. D. C. Wadell, Cashier of the Bank of Asheville, is confined to his home by sickness. It is hoped he will be out in a day or two.

An error of the type made us say that Mr. V. V. Richardson had been appointed Marshal for the Western District. Eastern, of course, was meant.

John Brooks, Jr. requests us to state that he found a store key on Main street, between Woodlawn street and the Square, which the owner can get by applying to him.

Judge Shuford left yesterday evening for Raleigh, to attend the supreme court where he has several important cases. What other court he will attend he failed to inform us.

Mr. Lock Craig, attorney offers a handsome and comfortable residence on Chestnut Street for rent or sale. It is valuable and eligible property. Call on Mr. Craig at his office in the Court House.

The City Coal Yard, S. F. Venable Proprietor, received yesterday eight more car loads of that very beautiful Pelham coal, which is now ready for prompt delivery. Leave orders with Mr. Dukes Cain, at his office in rear of Penman & Co's Store.

See notice of Capt. Price, by attention to which everybody can be supplied with oysters or other coast delicacies for Christmas; at all times, in fact, for Capt. Price is in regular receipt of such things, and spares no pains to meet the wants of his customers.

The wind of Saturday evening raised the roof from a barn on Capt. A. M. Alexanders farm, near Alexander's.

Never eat ham or hog meat until thoroughly cooked. A number of deaths have occurred lately in Indiana from eating underdone ham resulting in trichinosis.

Hon. Thos. D. Johnston has had several small post offices and some postal routes established since his arrival in Washington. Among the routes established is one between Turkey Cove, McDowell county, and South Toe, Yancey county.

BURIAL OF CHARLIE HILL.
The burial services over the remains of Charlie F. Hill will be read at his father's residence at half past nine o'clock this (Tuesday) morning. The friends of the family invited to attend.

THE BANK OF ASHEVILLE
Presents its claims to the consideration of the people of Western North Carolina. Established in 1879, and managed with scrupulous honesty and ability, it merits the full confidence of the public.

THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF ASHEVILLE
Invites attention of the business public to their opening. Offered by experienced men, in banking and business, it is entitled to the full consideration of the public. We welcome this new institution to the new enterprises of our city.

THE BARGAIN COUNTER
At Law's is covered with a lot of toys and other goods bought at auction in New York. Among which are the following: Real Balmain Finery, 5c each, (worth 25) Wax Dolls, 10 inch, 15 and 25c; Brass Trays, 25 and 35c; Scrap Books 10c and 15c; Vases 5c, and Surprise boxes 5c. The stock is finer and the prices lower than ever before. A very carefully selected stock of Silverware and one of the largest in the State at Law's opposite Eagle Hotel.

Imported French brandies and wines undervalued at Hampton & Featherstone's.

Beer, ale, porter, rum, gin, imported and domestic, at Hampton & Featherstone's.

THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF ASHEVILLE.

The officers of the above institution were busy yesterday arranging for the beginning of business to-day. The old bank has been nicely refitted and arranged, and now presents a most comfortable and inviting appearance. Everything is ready for business, and the public are cordially invited to call. The officers are all gentlemen of large business and banking experience and character, and merit the fullest confidence of the public. We wish the new bank full success, for to achieve such as it will merit, it must prove of great benefit to the general community.

WEATHER FORECAST
Prof. W. H. Smith, Montreal, predicts for the week ending Wednesday, Dec. 16th:—Snow and wind north and northwest, heavy rains in southern sections—cold weather, a "dip"—heavy downfall again over the greater part of the continent, with stormy weather at the close of the week.

Week ending Wednesday, Dec. 23.—Fine cold weather with low ther readings, cloudy and cold, snow and sleety rain, rain and fog in the south and southwest, generally mild, open weather for December at the close.

[CHRISTMAS.] Week ending Wednesday, Dec. 30th.—Every probability of a "green" Christmas. In most sections, with mild weather for the season—changing to heavy snow, cold weather, stormy and unsettled, with great drifts and bluster and a general snow blockade N. and N. W.—Fine weather.

[NEW YEAR'S] Week ending Wednesday, January 6th, 1886.—The old year is likely to close, and the new year open dull and moderate in many sections—changing to blizzards in the Northwest, and generally windy, snowy, unsettled weather—clear, cold and brilliant, with fairly low ther. readings.

HOMICIDES IN MADISON COUNTY
We are informed of a dreadful family tragedy which occurred in Madison county on Big Laurel on Saturday afternoon last. James Gunter and a son of his, who had been drinking together, became involved in an angry dispute. The son went into his house. The father followed with an axe using deadly threats. The father persisted, and as he entered the door was shot down by a rifle in the hands of the son, the ball entering the bowels, on the left side, causing death in a few minutes. The slayer was arrested at once and lodged in the jail of Marshall.

Our informant gives us information of another tragedy which occurred recently on Shelton Laurel in the same county. A Mrs. Goslin, wife of Wiley Goslin, left her husband and took up with a man by the name of Norton. The two men met subsequently, and a violent altercation between them took place. A resort to deadly weapons was had. Mrs. Goslin intervened, and as she did so received a blow which killed her. It is not known who fired the fatal shot. Goslin is charged; Norton is still on Shelton Laurel.

DR. G. W. PUREFOY.
We invite the attention of the public to the professional card of Dr. Purefoy, and unhesitatingly commend him to the favorable consideration of all. Dr. P. is a gentleman of high professional and personal attainments, and fully merits the confidence of the public. We welcome all such excellent citizens. Dr. P. leaves a large and lucrative practice in Orange county, and since graduating in Philadelphia has taken two special courses.

THE GREENSBORO PROHIBITION CONVENTION.
Very little has come to us of the proceedings of this body, which met on the 10th, except what we find in a telegram to the News-Chronicle. Prof. F. B. Blair, was chairman, pro tem, and Mr. W. R. Odell, of Concord, chairman. A long discussion pro and con on the object of the convention, which was the policy of the formation of a new political party in North Carolina, ended in the postponed matter of the question to a later hour. Mr. T. L. Vail, of Charlotte, was elected permanent president, and W. T. Steele and Mr. W. L. Odell, secretaries.

Subsequently in the afternoon session, the convention organized a Prohibition party, and will put out a State ticket next year.

ON THE LINE.
The authorities of the Western N. C. Road have completed a side track and other conveniences at Pelham, where the transfer will hereafter take place between the East-Tennessee and W. N. C. Roads instead of at Warm Springs.

It was not our intention to ignore the arguments of Messrs. McGill, McGill, Carter, J. H. Morrison and J. M. Gudgeon, Jr. in our allusion to the discussion on the point raised in the Hensley case on Saturday. We intended the case room a short while before Mr. J. M. Gudgeon, Jr. concluded, and wrote the notice a few moments afterwards. We understood, from outside parties, that the above gentlemen participated in the argument, and as they generally do, made very able and strong presentation of their case. 122 1247

THE RUTHERFORD MEETING.

We clip the following from the Rutherford Banner:

"Mr. Editor.—Our feelings are very much gratified to learn through the Asheville Citizen that both the Board of Aldermen and the Board of Trade have held meetings and appointed delegates to our meeting from the city of Asheville, and those delegates embrace some of their best and leading men.
The Citizen has fit the mail on the head—all extension from Rutherford to Asheville, a distance of 38 miles, will make connections with the outside world in all directions. (THE CITIZEN) says: 'With hearty favor this extension of the C. C. to Asheville, or the construction of any other that could be gotten.'"
We think it reasonably safe to say that the Rutherford extension is a fixed fact, and that an extension to Asheville is only necessary to place us upon an equality with our neighbors. We expect and hope that the people of Rutherford will turn out en masse.

There are four points now seeking connection with Rutherford—Spaulding, Guilford, Blount, and Shelby, and on the two latter points the work is at work from 800 to 1,000 hands.

SOCIABLE LITERATURE.
There will be a social gathering at the Methodist Parsonage on Friday afternoon and night, for the benefit of the Parsonage. Doors open 7:30 p. m. until 10 p. m. All the congregation are urged to attend.

Mr. Fred A. Stewart, President of the Commercial (Wholesale) Club of Baltimore, at the terms of Patton Avenue Bridge, at the terminus of Patton Avenue, and one of the most popular gentlemen on the road, has been in the city the past few days.

Handsome cups and saucers, work boxes, photograph frames, boxes of paper, whisk broom holders, &c., at Pelham's.

Xmas goods at bottom prices at Pelham's—new and handsome goods to suit every body's pocketbook.

Choice selection of Christmas cards, and Art Novelties at reasonable prices. J. N. Morgan & Co.
